SUMMARY

4.49.22281

The purpose of this summary is to provide an explanation of the nature and scope of my experience as a supplement to the tabular position descriptions which follow, and to explain the circumstances under which I was compelled to accept a three grade cut from Caf-12 to Caf-9.

From October 16, 1941 until September 30, 1947 my positions became progressively more responsible in the field of administration in general, and more particularly in that phase of public administration which involves organization and methods analysis, budgeting, and budget control. Thus, within the War Production Board it was my job to provide administrative services such as organization and methods analysis, budgeting, office services and personnel. All of these involved direction, planning, coordination and control of a wide range of activities in a rather large organizational unit subject to a rapidly changing and flexible program.

In the Army, first as an enlisted man and later as an officer, I was engaged for some three and a half years in administrative activities. All of these, to a very large degree, required not only a thorough knowledge of but also active participation in devising and revising procedures, preparing budgets, and controlling expenditures. Much of my time was spent in installations where the functions were under the direction of an operating division, and the funds supplied by the various technical services of the Army. As a result it was necessary to keep a very tight control on a variety of appropriations. These included motor transportation, engineer, quartermaster, medical, and general funds of the Army. During the last year of my service, I held a top level staff job in a 3,850 to 4,500 bed hospital. This hospital had two physical plants about two miles apart, and was staffed by some 4,000 civilian and military personnel. Organizations, functions, and procedures of each administrative unit and professional service were directly under my administrative supervision. The personnel strength and the material requirements of all these organizational units were subject to my recommendations prior to final approval by the Executive and Commanding Officers.

Two months after my return to the Civilian Production Administration as an industrial analyst, I was transferred to the Premium Payment Branch of the Forest Products Division. In this position I was required to assist in establishing the policies and administering a program which was developed to increase the production of softwood, plywood, and hardwood flooring, and to make available to the lumber industry state-owned standing timber. The economic and statistical problems relative to the establishment of production quotas and premium rates involved estimates of production running into hundreds of billions of board feet of lumber and had an effect upon every phase of the National Housing Program as well as upon all users of lumber and lumber products.

The Office of the Housing Expediter, to which the Civilian Production Administration unit where I was employed was transferred, issued a reduction in force to me, the final effective date of which, after two amendments, was September 30th. I registered as a displaced career employee and the Civil Service Commission certified me to the Navy Department as an Administrative Assistant, Caf-9. This Agency selected me from the Certificate. While I did not desire to take a cut from Caf-12 to Caf-9, I could not afford to remain out of work for an extended period because of my recent discharge from the Army. Therefore, I accepted the Navy offer and entered on duty 1 October.

Present Position - Item 16a - Administrative Assistant - Gaf-9

Studies proposed legislation, new programs, trends in work loads, production rates and actual operations in order to plan ahead for personnel, space, equipment, printing, general supplies, telephones, and all other facilities and services needed in future operations. Prepares budget estimates and justifications for personal services and material requirements of the Records Activity. Plans and develops procedures, forms, organizational structure and administrative details for new functions and programs. Makes decisions and takes action for the Activity on the placement, transfer, reassignment, promotion, grievances and separation of civilian and naval personnel (approximately 800). Maintains liaison with Bureau management and personnel technicians and other personnel officers.

Item 16b and c - Business Specialist and Industrial Analyst - Caf-12

Serves as Vice-Chairman of the Quota Committee and as Assistant Administrator for Forest Products Premium Payment Regulations EPPR-2 Softwood Plywood, EPPR-4 Standing Timber, EPPR-6 - Southern Hardwood Flooring, and EPPR-7 - Northern Hardwood Flooring. Assists the Section Chief in determination of policy relating to the administration of premium payments and in the formulation of new plans proposed by the Office of the Housing Expediter. Participates in discussions with representatives from industry, NEA, CPA and HFC resolving operating problems relating to the Premium Payment Plans, determining production quotas, and processing of appeals from the order submitted by producers under the plan. Reviews the summary analyses of other analysts, and personally analyzes the more difficult field audits of the records maintained by hardwood flooring manufacturers operating under the Premium Payment Programs. Ascertains the degree of compliance and conformance with the technical and legal provisions of the premium payment regulations and other pertinent GSE, CPA and CFA regulations. Determines the validity of production claims by comparing the actual production figures claimed with the production computed by the inventory-sales method; reviews schedules of purchase invoices to ascertain the amount of bonus payments made to suppliers; and examines sales invoices for adherence to maximum price regulations. Prepares requests to the field for additional information; prepares correspondence to manufacturers advising them of invalidation and reasons therefore; and notifies the HFC of action to be taken with respect to payment of premiums. Exercises functional responsibility over the premium payment activities of lower grade personnel engaged in composing, compiling and collating material and prepares therefrom special and regular reports relating to quotas, production and premium payments as required by statute.

Item 16d - Industrial Analyst - Caf-11

Reviews and analyzes applications for priority assistance, approving and denying same, in conformance with existing regulations and on the basis of the relative importance of applicant's products to the national economy, the minimum economic needs of his business, and the available national supply of raw materials requested. Interviews applicants in person and by telephone to obtain additional information and to explain action taken. Maintains liaison with representatives from CPA industry branches and representatives from FPHA, NHA, Agriculture and Commerce insofar as there is a relationship of interest.

Item 16e - Chief, Administrative Services Section - Caf-11

Consults and advises with the Director and Deputy Director of the Division on the formulation of policies pertaining to the operation and administration of the Division. Ascertains the actual functions of new organizational units and reviews existing functions in order to devise or revise procedures and to determine, in collaboration with the various Section Chiefs, the type and number of personnel needed and space, equipment, supplies and other services required. On the basis of this determination and on the basis of production and work load records maintained under the direction of the incumbent, prepares estimates of budgetary requirements, separating budgetary encumbrances into such classification as personnel, equipment, supplies, travel, telephones, space, and other miscellaneous services. Directs all phases of personnel management including the writing of job descriptions, placement, reassignment, transfer, promotion of employees and employee relations. Plans space layout, directs the establishment of office procedures for requisitioning administrative services, and performs a variety of related duties as required.

17a - Enlisted Service (Sgt.)

As an enlisted man, other than four months of training at Officer Candidate School, I was Director of Civilian Personnel, School for Special and Morale Services (Information and Education), Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia. A description of my duties follows:

Directs all activities pertaining to civilian personnel, such as recruitment, classification, placement, promotion, transfer, training, and employee relations in accordance with policies personally recommended and subsequently approved by the Commandant of the School. Directs the maintenance of payroll records, the preparation of payroll vouchers, and the posting of expenditures under the proper appropriation accounts. Determines the personnel needs of the installation (including military), prepares budgetary estimates therefor, and justifies same in person to the Director of Personnel, Army Services Forces. Maintains liaison with the Civil Service Commission, Headquarters, Third Service Command, and the local United States Employment Service. Acts as the School representative on the USRS Board.

While stationed at this school, I performed many additional duties such as:

1. Audited books of Jackson Memorial Hospital, Lexington, Va., to determine monies owing to this hospital by the government for services rendered military personnel stationed at the school.
2. Represented the School on a tax matter involving a claim by the Treasury Department against the Officer's Mess for non-payment of Social Security and Unemployment Insurance taxes. This claim was later dismissed on the grounds that the Officer's Mess was a sub-division of the War Department and therefore, not subject to the tax.
3. Obtained priority assistance for the School's new enlisted man's mess hall after many delays had seriously handicapped the ASTP program.

Item 17b - Commissioned Service (1st Lt.)

From February 1945 to August 1946 I was stationed at Tilton General Hospital, Fort Dix, New Jersey. My principle duty assignments at this Hospital were as follows:

Assistant Executive Officer
Officer-in-Charge, Officer Personnel
Officer-in-Charge, Separation Point
Administrative Assistant to Director of Personnel
Civilian Personnel Officer

A resume of my duties in each of the assignments listed are described below:

Assistant Executive Officer

Under the general direction of the Commanding Officer of this 3,850 bed general hospital, acts as his executive assistant and in his name maintains administrative supervision over all chiefs of professional services and administrative services when applicable. Recommends approval or disapproval of personnel, material, and engineering requirements and prepares justifications for budget estimates and requests for additional funds from higher headquarters. Coordinates the activities of all the departments and services of the Hospital; makes surveys of Departments and Services, reviewing procedures and initiating, with approval of the Commanding Officer, changes deemed necessary in the light of changing work loads, production, and personnel needs to promote maximum efficiency of operation; personally prepares, for the signature of the Commanding Officer, replies to special inquiries from higher War Department echelons, Senators, Representatives, and relatives of patients on matters pertaining to hospitalization, discharge and release of officers and enlisted men; reviews all Certificates for Disability Discharge of enlisted patients and Disposition Boards for Officers appearing before Officer's Disposition Board, personally approving or disapproving CDD cases and recommending approval or disapproval of Disposition Boards to the Commanding Officer; immediately supervises the Hospital Inspector's Office and in the name of the Commanding Officer orders necessary action for the proper correction of deficiencies or delinquencies in standards of operating procedures.

Officer-in-Charge, Officer Personnel

Directs the processing of newly assigned duty officers and the clearing of officers reassigned to other installations. Directs the maintenance of personnel strength records, Officer Qualification Cards, and 202 files for all duty and patient personnel. Personally examines all records pertaining to patient officers in order to determine if dispositions such as return to duty, appearance before Army Retiring Board, orders to Separation Center, or orders to receiving station for re-assignment, were properly accomplished. (In this connection I was the final authority on dispositions which were based on a complication regulation.) Officers who were in doubt about their physical status were interviewed and advised on proper procedure relative to Army Retiring Boards, their legal rights in connection therewith, and the proper channels for obtaining same.

Officer-in-Charge, Separation Point

When this function was assigned to the Hospital, I was selected to assist in establishing the unit and providing the facilities and personnel required to operate the Separation Point. In this connection, I planned the organization to consist of a medical processing line, a records section, and a separation and classification counselling section, and coordinated the activities of these sections with those of the Personnel Office, the Registrar, and the Finance Office. After operations commenced my duties were as follows:

Writes explanatory memoranda and operating procedures; directs the maintenance of statistics, the maintenance of separation records, the preparation of discharge certificates, and the distribution of records, orders, etc.; reviews physical examination reports for adherence to War Department standards and rejects for separation those persons who fail to meet them. Personally interviews officers and enlisted personnel with unusual problems relative to date of separation, travel, and physical incapacities and assists them in every way possible.

Present: Mr. Ray E. Millard, Assistant Chief
Mr. John A. Book
Mr. Irving Adler, Witness
Miss Myrtle A. Stack, Stenographer.

Q. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Prior to that I don't remember exactly, but I think it was Webster at 171st Street and then somewhere on St. Paul Place. Before that I was at the Jewish Maternity Hospital, where I was born.

Q. Have you ever lived at 2081 Morris Avenue, the Bronx?

A. No.

Q. Do you have any relatives living at this address?

A. No.

Q. Did you ever use this as a mailing address?

A. No.

Q. Can you associate this address with any persons you know?

A. No.

Q. Is that in a neighborhood where you previously lived?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know anyone in that area by the name of Irving Adler other than yourself?

A. No.

Q. Have you ever registered as a voter under the Communist Party?

Q. Are you a member of the Workmen's Circle?

A. I was never a member but my father was and I worked up there for three summers.

Q. What is your opinion of that organization?

A. It's a fraternal organization for Jewish workmen and has slight Socialistic tendencies. It's affiliated with the Jewish newspaper, the Foram, which is one of the organs of the Socialist Party. May I retract that statement about being a member of the Workmen's Circle? I don't recall the date but I remember that for no more than a week or two, my father's branch was forming a Young Circle League which is the junior organization for the Workmen's Circle. I received the medical examination, was inducted but I can't remember if I paid any dues.

Q. Do you consider the Workmen's Circle a questionable group from the standpoint of loyalty?

A. No.

Q. Has it ever been questioned publicly that you know about?

A. No.

Q. What are their activities other than fraternal?

A. I'm not quite certain what you mean, but they do conduct a series of Jewish educational systems, or rather schools. My mother is a trustee in one of the schools.

Q. Any propaganda come from there? Are there any promotional activities from the standpoint of distributing literature regarding the part Russia is playing in this war?

A. No. Can I go back and explain something. The Workmen's Circle is mostly made up of people who are immigrants and usually by districts. My people come from Pinsk and they got out a book entitled "A Thousand Years Hence". That's the extent that I know about.

Pinsk

Q. Did you live with your family until you came here?

A. I moved in May or June 1940. My wife and I took an apartment.

Q. When did you subscribe to the "New Masses" and "Friday"?

A. During the Spanish War in 1940.

Q. Was there any reason for taking these magazines?

A. There was a peculiar setup at Totem Lodge where I worked. That was during the summers. Half the boys were for one side during the Spanish Civil War and half were for the other. I was on the Loyalist side. There was a lot of talk and I started to subscribe to the magazines.

Q. Did you enter any activities for the Loyalist cause?

A. I made some contributions, not more than a dollar or so at a time.

Q. Did you participate in the collection of funds for the group?

A. No.

Q. Were you cognizant of the basic cause behind the Loyalist issue?

A. I'm not so sure I know what you mean by that.

Q. Wouldn't you say that from a political standpoint, it was really Fascism against Communism?

A. I thought it was the democratic faction fighting to set up a republic.

Q. Did you get that idea from the "New Masses" or "Friday"?

A. I don't believe "Friday" was out at that time but the "New Masses" was definitely a Communist magazine.

Q. Do you think they tried to compare Communism with Democracy?

A. I think they tried.

Q. Do you continue to believe that that was a democratic fight against Nazism?

A. I was a little mixed up at that time. I didn't know whether it was democratic or Communistic.

Q. How old were you at the time?

A. 24 - that is 23 and 24.

Q. Do you belong to any organizations other than religious, Fraternal or labor?

A. No. I was a member of the Junior Honorary Society at ~~New York University~~ City College.

A. No.

Q. Does this name mean anything to you, Paul Nurkiewicz?

A. No.

Q. Have you ever been involved in any city in a bank concerning the kiting of checks?

A. No.

Q. Do you have any relatives living in Russia today?

A. My mother's two sisters and their husbands and children. My grandmother corresponds with them, and sometimes my mother inserts a letter with my grandmother's. I don't think they have heard from them in quite a while. I don't receive any propaganda from any foreign source.

Q. Have you ever been approached for any information about your work?

A. No.

Q. What we want you to do if you are ever approached for information with threat of harm to the above relatives, is to immediately notify your supervisor and this office.

A. I certainly will do that. Frankly my grandmother is close to 70 and is pretty worried about her two daughters. We had been in the habit of sending clothing, but we have not heard from them in over a year.

Q. I am not in a position to say what will or will not happen. Under present circumstances, I don't think anything is out of the realm of possibility. We merely put you on notice in the event any such situation should arise. With reference to the more pertinent factors of our discussion, is there anything further you would care to add for the record?

A. None, at all except that I ~~notified~~ did not notify my draft board my wife isn't working. Several of the questions were entirely remote from my living in New York.

Q. The conversation here between us will be transcribed and, when that is done, I would like to have you read it, make any corrections you will and sign it.

A. I'll be glad to.

Subscribed and sworn to before me on this 15th day of June, 1942.
